

Final Challenge

EPI CRIME NEWSFLASH anglais / emi

In pairs, record a radio newflash report on a crime that has just been committed.

Student A will be the radio journalist at the recording studio.

- introduce the radio / newflash
- announce the crime / describe what happened very briefly
- introduce the reporter
- ask questions about the crime
- conclude the newflash

Student B will play the reporter, live from the crime scene.

- describe what happened
- answer the radio journalist's questions

Lexique: les crimes, la radio

Grammaire: le prétérit simple, le prétérit BE + V-ing, le passif au passé, les questions

Phonologie: l'accentuation, l'intonation

RADIO NEWS REPORT
Introduction : Greetings / name	Good morning / Good afternoon / Good evening.  I'm ...
Name of the radio station	This is ... news.
What happened ? (Wh-questions)
	Our correspondent (name) is live from the crime scene in (place). ..... .....
Correspondent : what happened ?	Good morning / Good afternoon / Good evening. .....
Question #1 (radio journalist)
Answer #2 (correspondent)
Question #2 (radio journalist)
Answer #2 (correspondent)
Conclusion	Thank you (name of the correspondent). More news about (crime) in the next report.